EARLY COPPER AUCTION

We are pleased to be able to offer the Cliff Young Collection of Late Date Cents. We believe this to be the most extensive collection by variety ever to be offered. Included are examples of every known business strike variety excepting only three presently unique examples. In addition to the many late varieties there are numerous pieces among the finest known in the condition census. The die state specialist will also find an unusual number of scarce and rare die states. Cliff took special care and exhibited a fine eye for quality in assembling this collection. We hope you will find something of value in it for yours.

We have also received a fine consignment of Colonial, early and middle dates, for this sale. These will be offered immediately after the late dates. Again an unusual number of rarities and exceptional census level pieces are represented. Included an example each of 1794 S-48 the starred reverse 1800 S-38A large date small fraction 1807 S-272 the small seven over six three of the "big four" Snellier varieties. But aside from the rarities and high grade "big number" pieces we attempt to provide a good selection of desirable yet affordable early copper. We believe that you can add to your collection without first taking out a second mortgage on the family farm. We like to think that for every six dollar haircut you get that leaves an extra $196 to spend in our sales. We look forward to your participation. As always we are thankful for your past support. We believe this is our best sale yet.

The sale will be held Saturday night July 31st at 9:00 p.m. in the Baltimore Convention Center, Baltimore, Maryland. Maps will be available for viewing at our table #645 at the American Numismatic Association during convention hours starting July 28th. We hope to see many of you in person in Baltimore.

In each sale the majority of our successful bidders did by mail. We welcome your participation. Remember, no matter what your maximum bid we open the bidding at one increment above the first highest back bid and execute your bid just as if you were in attendance in person. You will not pay your maximum amount unless competition dictates it. Please feel free to call Chris (407 321-2499) or Bob (407 321-8747) with any questions or to discuss any lot in the sale. Arrangements can be made to have individual lots sent for viewing by registered mail.

Mail or phone bids will be accepted up through the day of the sale and should be directed to Bob's Florida address.

We are presently accepting consignments for our next sale to be held in October.

Thanks,

Chris & Bob

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

- 474 1787 CONNECTICUT 1/2. 32.2 x .11. VSB. Olive brown with lighter brown highlights. Double struck, the first slightly off center to K 12, the second farther off center to R 6. Some evidence of the first strike remains.

- 475 1787 CONNECTICUT 1/2. 25.15 x .11. VF20. Dark olive with exceptionally granular surfaces.

- 476 1787 MASON N.3 D VF20. VF30. Chocolate and light brown. The surfaces faintly granular. Well centered and sharply struck. A small planer's fissure at K-9 on both sides. Later die state with reversed clash marks clear. A nice example of the full rays variety.

- 477 1807 ERIE (NEW HAVEN RESTRIKE) 1/2. AU66. Glossy dark brown. See the "Redbook" page 14.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

475. 1787 MASSACHUSETTS CENT R2D A. VF20+. Glossy chocolate brown. The "horned eagle" variety.

476. 1787 MASSACHUSETTS CENT PRODS 12 X VG10. Sharpness VF20 with a few patches of reddish corrosion on both sides. Mottled brown and very dark olive.

480. 1786 NEW JERSEY M.24-p. VF35+. Glossy medium brown with splashes of reddish brown toning. There are a few very minor planchet striations on both sides.

481. 1787 NEW JERSEY M.32 T. EF40. Choice glossy light brown with a small rim dent at X 9 on the reverse. Otherwise a choice mark free piece.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

482. 1786 VERMONT R10 V37. Sharpness a bit better with a lightly porous planchet that has a void on the forehead (typical for this variety as nearly all were struck on poor planchets). The legends are complete and most of the date is visible. Light brown and darker steel. Not beautiful but difficult to find nicer.

483. 1787 VERMONT R13 EF45+. Choice glossy medium brown. There is a planchet void at the rim below V, a planchet fissure over the T, and a small patch of slag struck into the planchet on the wall below the neck. Very difficult to grade with precision as the reverse die on this variety was shallowly engraved to simulate wear. This is actually one of the most sharply struck examples we have seen. The obverse is razor sharp and though the reverse is weak there are remnants of the date intact such that the 87 of 1787 is readable. The surfaces retain some of the original luster. A very attractive Vermont. Probably in essentially the same condition as when it left the dies.

484. 1788 VERMONT N23 F12. Sharpness a bit better but the surfaces are lightly granular. Golden light olive brown.
485. 1788 VERMONT FIDES 20 W610. Sharpness a bit better with a planchet fissure at the rim below the aqueduct. Dark brown with lighter brown highlights.

520. 1928 C-1 R1 VGS. Sharpness F12 with a few light scratches. Recolored glossy reddish brown and tan. Breen state III.
521. 1928 C-2 R2 AU50. The 12-star variety. Frosty light green brown with lots of mint flash remaining. Spent early die state with sharp die scratches through IT in UNITED and a heavy ear through A in STATES. Much of the reverse is polished, especially strong at OF AM. This example also has a fine die crack from star 7 to the hair ribbon. Compatible to the die state of Cohen:319 but with the obverse die crack. A very interesting die state that could be used to rake some specimens out of the Breen die states listed for this variety.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

332. 1793 S 12 R6 G5. Sharpness G6 with lightly porous surfaces and some shallow planchet laminations on the reverse. Dark olive and steel brown. The central reverse is worn smooth as usual due to die swelling in this area, but the date is full and strong and the legends are clear. A recent example of this rare Liberty Cap '93.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

RARELY OFFERED 1793 S-16

- 1793 S-16 R6- G4. Sharpness G6 with microscopically flat, dry surfaces. Once neatly pierced with two small holes in the central portion of the planchet, but the coin was seen repaired with such consummate skill that any evidence of a repair is undetectable. Well balanced and relatively mark free except for a small void or dent below ON in ONE and another in the wreath right of T in CENT. The date is weak but full and all the legends and devices are clear. Nicely recolored dark brown with lighter brown highlights. The reverse is rotated 45°CCW. A very rare variety with only 2 examples known better than VG8. A great opportunity for serious collectors of 1793 cents.

NEWLY DISCOVERED 1794 S-18a

- 1794 S-18a R7- G5. Sharpness VG10 or a bit better with some fine scratches on the obverse and some fine scratches on both sides. The planchet is only very lightly corroded, but it is a bit rough from striations on the obverse before the face. Lighter striations running NE to SW cover the reverse, and there is a planchet crease over UNITE. The date is weak but visible and the reverse legend is clear. The edge lettering and downturned leaf symbols. Dark chocolate brown with some lighter highlights. A newly discovered example of this extremely rare 1794 head and eagle device of 1794 variety.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

535. 1794 S 18b R4 G5. Sharpness F12 with a lightly granular obverse and moderately porous reverse. Dark chocolate with lighter brown highlights. The date is complete but faint; the head and cap are bold. The popular head of 1793 variety.

538. 1794 S 22 R1 VG8-. Close to VG10. Glossy dark olive with some lighter brown highlights. Possibly recolored but attractive in any case. LDS.

539. 1794 S 20 R1 VG8. Glossy tan. Late die state with the reverse specks strong and the central reverse bulged outward. There are some minor rim bruises on both sides, note perforations. Overall very nice for the grade.
540. 1794 S 21 R4 G5. Sharpness VF12 or a bit better but heavily corroded. Extorages on the reverse. Glossy chocolate with light brown highlights. There is a minor rim nick at the bust top. Late die stage with the reverse crack strong. An attractive 2-tone cent to spare of the flaws.
541. 1794 S 21 R1 VF25+. Very attractive glossy medium brown and chocolate. The only defect is a badly struck area at the bottom of the bust. See Van Kleeve's 333 (Raglan's 30 Jan. 86). A very nice 1794 cent.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

180. 1794 S 34 RE AG3+. Sharpness G3 but lightly porous on the obverse, moderately so on the reverse. Somewhat glossy dark grey steel. The date, devices, and all legends are still visible, although portions are faint. MDS with crack from 6 to 10 to rim.
181. 1794 S 38 R6+ G6+. Sharpness near VF20 but corroded with the raised devices lightly burnished to smooth the roughness. Silvery chocolate and dark steel brown. More attractive than it sounds. Later die state with the obverse cracks absent. Ex Kuntz 10/6/93:42.
182. 1794 S 39 R6+ G6+. Sharpness F15 but corroded. Dark brown brown. The date, legends, and devices are clear in spite of the roughness.

RARE 1794 SHELDON 39 DISCOVERED BY WALTER BREEN

183. 1794 S 39 R6+ G6+. Sharpness VG8 with lightly porous surfaces. Reddish brown with some slightly lighter highlights. The bottom of the date is a bit weak but everything is visible. A decent example of a variety very rarely offered. The last public offering we are aware of was the choice VG8 in the Dr. Tom Chalkley collection which sold for $8800 in January of 1990. The example we offer above was discovered at the Long Beach convention in 1989 by Walter Breen. The owner of the piece at the time was a local commercial dealer who had it displayed unattributed in a case of other low grade common type coins. As was his habit at this time Walter asked to see the piece took out one of his lavender tipped pens and began making detailed notes on the coin in one of the small notepads he always carried with him. After examining it, making notes then reexamining with the small plastic magnifying lens he wore on a string around his neck making more notes then examining it again. He finally handed the coin back to the dealer and began to walk away without saying anything further. This whole time the dealer had been nervously fidgeting, agitated at the thought that one of his lowly coins was being so closely examined by Walter Breen! Who knew what untold riches awaited him! When Walter started to walk away the dealer stopped him, asking about the coin. How rare was it? What was it worth? Walter informed him that it was a rare Sheldon variety but that he no longer put values on coins. Which was true for at this point in time after many a disappointing experience Walter had forsworn buying and selling coins. Thus the coin went back into the dealer's case. An hour or two later your present cataloger discovered the same coin still lying in the same case. While examining it I was told Walter Breen had seen it already and that it was rare. My more wobbly attempt to purchase the coin was rebuffed. "No, I want to offer it to Walter first." So I tracked down Walter at the bourse floor offering to split the profit on the coin if Walter would act as purchasing agent. Of course this whole time Walter and I were discussing the logistics of the coin's purchase and the curious circumstances of its discovery, the meter was running on the price! By now the dealer was convinced he owned a part of the lost treasure of Tutankharen. After some routine shenanigans which were a matter of great surprise & consternation to Walter, but unfortunately quite familiar to me, a purchase price up into four figures and a little over ten times what had originally been marked on the number was agreed upon and the S-39, now properly attributed, was directed into those channels of commerce more familiar to the Large Cent collecting fraternity.

186-1894 S-481 #4 VF20. Sharpness VF30 with a planchet pit at 9A and some smaller ones around 3 in UNITED. Nicely polished red in brown and coated with lacquer giving it an attractive gloss.

1794 STARRED REVERSE CENT

144. 1794 S 14 R5- PR2+. Close to AG3. The obverse has the sharpness of G4 but the reverse is weak with about 70% of the details visible. The all important stars are clearly visible over UNITED and a few other places. There are two fairly large rim dents at K-1 and K-8 with a much smaller one over I in LIBERTY. Choice glossy light to medium brown with absolutely no hint of corrosion or porosity so often seen on this variety. A decent low grade example of the extremely popular starred reverse.

145. 1794 S 51 R5- G5. Sharpness VG7 with lightly porous surfaces. Dark olive with some lighter brown highlights. The reverse legend is faint near the rim but everything else is clear.

146. 1794 S 59 R3 VG7. Sharpness VF20 but lightly porous, mostly on the obverse. Rather glossy steel brown with light brown highlights. Middle die strike with reverse die crack strong.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

557. 1794 S-61 P4 P16-. Sharpness VF30 but minutely granular with three short dull scratches on the reverse. Dark olive with lighter brown highlights. The die classmarks are clear. Ex Vax. Cleave:5065 (Kagin's 30 Jan 86) as VF20.

558. 1794 S-64 P2 VF35. Glossy reddish chocolate with light brown highlights. Late die state with crack through 5 and wreath and looping in the central reverse. A fine example of the popular "wreath fraction" variety. Ex Stacks 11 Mar 87:108.

559. 1794 S-65 P1 P12. Sharpness VF25 with microscopic granularity and a few shallow pits, mostly at the edges. Somewhat dusky medium brown with a small reddish area on the obverse. Sharp early to middle die state. Slight off center to W. L.

EARLY COPPER AUCTION

931. 1794 S-66 R6 AG3. Sharpness F12 but dented with some old scratches across the obverse. Portions of the face are flattened and there is a strong rim dent over RIC. On the plus side the planchet is a nice medium brown and the split pole die crack is strong.

CHOICE 1794 S-70 HEAD OF 1795

954. 1794 S-70 R2 VF25. Choice glossy light brown. A very nice example that is virtually mark free except for a very minor rim bruise at Y in LIBERTY. Late die state with obverse die crack strong. Ex Phil VanCleave, Kagin's 1/30/86:5074. (photo)

955. 1794 S-70 R2 VF20. Glossy medium brown. Middle die state with strong clashmarks. A nice 1794. Ex VanCleave, Kagin's 1/30/86:5075.

956. 1794 S-71 R2 F12+ Very choice glossy medium chocolate brown. Hard to imagine a more choice coin for the grade.
